

What are the perceived challenges and concerns with A.I. in workforce development?

Quels sont les défis et les préoccupations que suscite l'I.A. dans le domaine du développement de la main-d'œuvre ?

Fears of AI in the workforce being a driver of job loss vs. being considered a value add to job roles available

Graduates already not workforce ready for the workforce; this is a big impact

Impacting all industries - one course or specialized course or learn as you work

Carefully consider the DEI outputs of AI, with concerns of bias and stereotypes - algorithmic biases.

Paying closer attention to talent development of human centered skills

Where or how to get this upskilling opportunity?

AI workers vs Workers who use AI

Produce integrity, manipulation of proprietary materials, voice manipulations

How can organizations keep up with the upskilling to required to keep up with role?

Pace of evolution of technology and trying to keep up skills with that pace

Accountability and copyright fears: the 'it's not my fault' mentality

Higher risk of competition due to ease of 'copycat' or providing similar product quicker and lower quality

Cybersecurity and privacy policies? Ethics? Who Governs?

10 years for a skill to be incorporated into an organization

Quelles sont les stratégies et les meilleures pratiques que nous pouvons mettre en œuvre pour surmonter ces obstacles ?

What are strategies and best practices we can implement to overcome these barriers?

